

1 agent?

2 A Co-case agent.

3 Q Co-case agent? Were the two of you in
4 charge of formulating the plans for the coordinated
5 executions of the search warrants?

6 A Yes, sir, we were.

7 Q How far in advance of the raid dates did
8 you begin that plan?

9 A Let me see. We applied -- this was filed
10 May 11th. The executions were on the 17th, if I
11 remember. Right?

12 MR. KAMINSKI: Yes.

13 A So we probably started several days prior
14 to May 11th, starting to get a rough plan together.

15 Q Did you put together an operational plan
16 for the overall activity?

17 A Yes, sir, I did.

18 Q Now, the application for the search
19 warrant that you've been reviewing, to whom was this
20 shown prior to presenting it to Magistrate Judge
21 Sherman?

22 A The United States Attorney's Office. Bill
23 Hunt was the U.S. Attorney that was responsible for 24 this case.

25 Q Did you show the application or the

1 when they first entered the residence, yes.

2 Q So, at the entrance, who was in charge of
3 that portion of the operation?

4 A The Hamilton Police Department SWAT team
5 did the execution of the entry.

6 Q Who did the actual search, after Hamilton
7 had secured the residence?

8 A It would have been the search team
9 responsible for that address.

10 Q Who was on the search team?

11 A I'd have to refer back to the raid plan,
12 itself. I don't have any recall.

13 Q Did you instruct anybody to leave copies
14 of the search warrant with the residents of the Vine
15 Street address?

16 A Yes, sir, that was a general order, face
17 sheet of the search warrant and the return.

18 Q Can you tell me how the residents could
19 determine what you were looking for from the face
20 sheet of the search warrant?

21 A I don't understand your question.

22 Q The residents of 922 could not determine,
23 from the face sheet of the search warrant, what you
24 were looking for, could they?

25 A No, sir, it is not spelled out there.
